"Forever Boy", il testo:

Oh Black market kind boy having tough tough trial dreams i can say it with assuring tones I can shake it to forever grown

did you write a memo boy
that you're lost and have no (home)
say it out loud
did you spell it easily dear
when your dad begged on the (phone)
scream it out loud
fortunes will spread better off dead than sold

Fiction's got not placing in this foreign land Getting all eccentric got no other plan Learning to commit more blood in other hands Smaller new beggining more to come for sure

Lost around the middle Cracked or snapped just brittle
I just come up for air
Lost around the middle

Round the quiver hall boy Uppercase your handstands do you know it's all up to you can't you see it circling

did you write a memo boy
that you're lost and have no (home)
say it out loud
when your dad begged on the (phone)
scream it out loud
fortunes will spread
better off dead than sold

Fiction's got not placing in this foreign land Oh joy Getting all eccentric got no other plan Oh joy Learning to commit more blood in other hands Oh joy Smaller new beggining more to come for sure Oh joy

Wish me well
